HUNG BY THE VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.—The [illegible] of the hanging of several men by the Vigilance Committee. Although [illegible] arrest every [illegible] being found hung up [illegible] with [illegible] have been hung and the reports in regard to others are not [illegible] without foundation. On Sunday morning a man was found hanging to a limb near the race track, a short distance below town. He was brought into town during the day [illegible] Coroner [illegible] and taken to the cemetery and buried. It appears from [illegible] that [illegible] was a [illegible] the [illegible] had [illegible] the store [illegible] in last week [illegible] he was found with the cattle last [illegible] and [illegible] the same night. He has been about the city [illegible] the [illegible] and departing for [illegible] hours of the night [illegible] he had been riding. He appeared to be morose [illegible] there and although his conduct at the time had not [illegible] its particular suspicion, the occasion of his frequent and unseasonable rides seems now to be fully explained. It is said that he was known also by the name of Reynolds and crossed the plains two years ago. He was of sandy complexion and about 24 years of age.

Two men named Isaac Reed and Wm. Wills were caught by the Committee last week [illegible] tried and convicted of horse stealing and brought up on to the Walla Walla river and hung. These men confessed their guilt and acknowledged belonging to a band of horse and cattle thieves who had secreted [illegible] horses on the Columbia river above Wallula. They also stated that the band got into a fight at their rendezvous some time ago among themselves and killed one of their number. Fifteen stolen horses were captured with these men. Reed and Wills were respectively about 24 years of age. They were formerly from Molalla, Oregon, but Reed has lived for the past five or six years near the Dalles.

The tall thick-lipped negro known as "Slim Jim" completes the list. He was found on Tuesday hanging to a tree about three fourths of a mile east of town. He has been known in the community as a thief, and several petty larcenies have been traced to him. He is the darkey that furnished Pole and Waddingham the instruments with which they effected their escape from the jail a short time ago. He was at one time a convict in the Oregon penitentiary and last summer killed a colored man in the Boise Basin. On the day that he was found hanging, a horse that he had stolen a month or two ago and cached on Cottonwood creek, was recovered and brought into town by the owner.—W. W. Statesman.

FROM ELK CITY.—Bacon of the Express, arrived Wednesday evening from Elk City. He reports the snow settled to about four feet in depth in Elk City valley, but says it is from 12 to 16 feet deep on the mountains along the trail.

About sixty men have gone over the mountains this spring and gone to work with the others of the camp. All are at work, and as soon as the water runs in the ditches, mining will commence in good earnest.

One of the eleven men who left this city with Bacon for that camp on the last trip fell in the rear of the party in going over the mountains to Newsome creek and became lost and wandered nine days in the snow in the mountains—eight days of which he was without food. Six days and nights he kept upon his feet on snow shoes, the snow falling continuously. His hunger was intense till the fifth day and then it seemed to subside. At times he became delirious and fancied that hundreds of men were about him, singing. On one of the occasions he stopped to hear them sing. How long he stopped he knows not, but when he came to his reason he found his toes frozen, which compelled him to abandon his snow shoes. He chewed tobacco constantly, and swallowed the juice, which seemed to keep alive his spirits.

Several men were in pursuit of him most of the time he was lost and, finally, on the ninth day found him about five miles from the Newsome Creek Station. When found he was delirious. After bringing him to camp his reason returned and he gave as full account of his adventures as memory would permit. He is now doing well. His name is A. G. Weiden, a Swede by birth.—Radiator.

FROM KOOTENAI.—Mr. Fred. White, who left here some weeks ago with a pack train for Kootenai, returned yesterday from the Spokane river, where he says he was compelled to store his goods, being unable to proceed further on account of the bad condition of the roads ahead. All the trains and mining parties which have started this spring are encamped at Spokane and vicinity. Where Mr. White says, they will be compelled to remain for three or four weeks before they can proceed on their journey. From the Pen d'Oreille to Fisherville the snow is still from two to six feet deep. Some of the miners intended to start from the Pen d'Oreille to-day on snow shoes for Fisherville.

The Kootenai expressman arrived at Spokane the day Mr. White left. He lost his horses there, but for which fact he would have reached here on Wednesday. He made the trip from Fisherville to Spokane in eleven days. He reported everything frozen up in the mines. Mr. White received a letter from Fisherville which stated that provisions and goods of all kinds excepting coffee, were scarce and high in the mines. Information had been received from Virginia City, Montana Territory, that pack trains were on the road from there to Fisherville via the Flathead Lake. The writer of the letter also stated that he had prospected on the Columbia for a distance of two hundred miles and had found nothing that would pay.—W. W. Statesman.

CAPTURE OF A FOX.—We learn that the celebrated blockade runner Fox, one of the fleetest of the Anglo Rebel steamers, has finally come to grief and now lies in Charleston harbor [illegible] Her most notable exploits [illegible] a prize, with the stars and stripes flying at her truck, where [illegible] the English or Confederate colors [illegible] the case might be [illegible]

The sly Reynard was brought up at last in a trap she never dreamed of. Her cargo is most valuable, and the vessel itself is worth many thousand dollars. She ran in on the night of the 21st and after passing the outer line of the blockade in safety, came to an anchor under Fort Moultrie with the [illegible] and satisfactory consciousness that she had again outwitted the Yankees [illegible] a little sum to the net profits.

Daylight came and with it the apparition of a Monitor [illegible] the gunboat [illegible] both eager [illegible] the harbor [illegible] gunboats and armed tugs. Under [illegible] the trap having [illegible] gracefully [illegible] her [illegible] the gunboats. She was taken [illegible] officers and crew placed in [illegible] to her [illegible] North for adjudication [illegible] sale. Victory and Peace

The surrender of Johnston to Grant on the same terms [illegible] granted Lee, and the defeat by Wilson of the rebel army in Alabama under such well known Generals as Taylor, Forrest, Adams, Roddy and [illegible], closes the career of the rebellion, and finishes every pretension of the Confederacy by its annihilation. Only a few weeks since Peace Commissioners were received and entertained with some show of respect accorded to them at least as individuals. Then the Government was endeavoring to persuade them [illegible] arms by offer of amnesty and efforts were made to conciliate not by compromise but by acts of kindness. Man's wisdom is frequently at fault, and the result shows that peace, if the most substantial kind, is at our doors won by valor and secured permanently by victory.

The last six months have shown a series of unexampled successes. Everywhere without exception victory has crowned our efforts and to-day a half million of Union soldiers are resting on their arms without a foe of consequence to offer them battle. The Confederacy is everywhere ruined and its hopes scattered at home and abroad, in the field and in the cabinet; its stores are captured, its arsenals destroyed, its armies prisoners of war, its chiefs and generals fugitives, or with their useless swords made harmless by submission. State rights as a theory of government has come to naught. Sophistry made it powerful as a rallying cry. Experience shows it to be useless and worse than useless as a rule of practice. To-day there is not a Southern statesman that dare claim for it any honor or recognition for its working has been impracticable. Chivalry no longer taunts the "mud sill" of the North, and slavery with the pride and arrogance it bred, is numbered with the past.

Cotton was counted king and Southern statesmen thought when they seceded that the homage of the world would be tendered it, and that when the operatives of Europe were at starvation point, if not before, the navies of the world would open Southern ports, that fleets and armies would hunt the eagle flag from the ocean, and aid secession to its accomplishment. All this has come to naught. Cotton has become a mighty product of wealth to the toiling millions on the fields of India and elsewhere. The monopoly of cotton growing so long enjoyed by the South has, by its own act been destroyed and when it enters the race again it will be against competitors of its own training.

There was another hope that Southern men entertained that has also failed them. They counted upon a divided North, they reckoned upon allies, where they only commanded a cowardly sympathy, and expected sympathy where they found only opposing bayonets. We have to thank God that during these trying years we had a President who lived for the people, who combined in his character and life guilelessness, spotless purity and simplicity, with greatness of soul, superior to malice, incapable of hate, and God gifted to be the savior of the Nation. We have to thank Him that under such a leader, despite the corruption war has fostered, and the vices that spring from it, the people also remained true and steadfast, reliant upon Him and strong in their omnipotent right.

The hum of trade will soon resound over the Southern States as of old, and ere long the intermingling of the people from every State, consequent upon emigration from the South to the North, and from the North to the South will show, as a consequence of the rebellion, a nation truly homogeneous in character, kindred in blood and feeling. It remains for our Government to temper justice with mercy, while meting out punishment to the few, to overwhelm with kindness the multitude that were so blindly and madly led astray. It remains for the Southern people to accept the situation in which they are placed, resume their place in the Nation, and choose proper men to represent them in its councils.

The lessons of the present hour should never be forgotten, but with the new epoch upon us, resolving that our march shall be onward and upward, it becomes all sections and all classes to lay aside unreasonable prejudices, to bury the past so far as it can be done, fulfilling, so far as human nature is capable, the noble sentiment of Lincoln: "With malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in, to bind up the Nation's wounds, to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphans, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all Nations."

OUR SPOKEY.—In these times, when Copperhead leaders are trying to worm into the columns of their organs a sort of half and half eulogy and reproach of the late lamented President, publishing abusive extracts with great gusto upon the outside, struck off previous to receiving the news, while in the editorial column they attempt half hearted candor and contemptible eulogy, it is startling to find in J. B. [illegible]ay, editor of the Reporter, one who does not condescend to truckle to policy or deny himself. Differing from him diametrically as we do, we prefer his words for the same reason that we respect an out spoken rebel more than a palavering "Peace Democrat." The following extract from the Reporter, much as we condemn it, is at least consistent with its former course. The people are to decide if formerly or now they can sanction or approve it. The great and good of all the world are against them if they do.

Much as we have opposed his policy bitterly and earnestly as we have denounced his official conduct, we cannot but unite in common with thinking men of all shades of political opinion in a feeling of profound regret at the occurrence of so calamitous an event. While we honestly believe that it would have been far better for the peace and prosperity of the country had he never seen the light, we cannot regard his assassination as a blessing [illegible] vein than as an evil to the nation, and can but denounce the murderer as an enemy not only to the peace and good order of society, of the United States, but as a violator of the laws of God and man. His death will not change the policy of the party in power nor will the blood shed by the murderer's bullet fill the voice of the myriads whose graves [illegible] roughen the plains of the North and South. The fatal deed which deprived him of life cannot resurrect the inanimate dead whose graves roughen the battle fields to which his fatal policy led them. Nor can virulent reproaches heaped upon his tomb stifle the malice obliterate the hatred, and wash out the bitter recollections engendered by the strife of sections. Nor will his memory covered with obloquy and reproach console the mourning hearts of the widow [illegible] the mother and fill the place by the fireside forever made vacant by this "cruel war."

SALEM, April 28.—[illegible] Baker, a violent secessionist, was arrested and examined here to-day by Capt. Keeler, Provost Marshal, for alleged rejoicing over the President's assassination by illuminating his house, etc., but as no evidence was produced against him, he was discharged.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 29.

Surrender of Johnson to Grant. Flight of Jeff. Davis.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 27.—The steamer from Morehead City brings advices from Newbern that Gen. Grant has effectually put an end to the negotiations [illegible] up between Sherman and Johnston. Gen. Grant had given Johnston until [illegible]

[illegible] the surrender [illegible]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A dispatch from Grant [illegible] Raleigh, April 26, 10 P. M., states: General Johnston [illegible] the terms [illegible] to the Chattahoochee [illegible] on the terms agreed upon between Lee and myself for the army of Northern Virginia.

(Signed) STANTON.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Newbern advices state that Johnston attempted to obtain terms from Grant which would provide for the pardon of Jeff. Davis and other leading conspirators, but the Lieut. General would listen to nothing of the kind, and Johnston was satisfied with the result to me granted Lee.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Intelligence of the arrival of Jeff. Davis and [illegible] fugitives as far south as South Carolina has been received in Washington. It is thought he will be intercepted before reaching the Mississippi river.

Defeat of Dick Taylor by Wilson in Alabama.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—The late Georgia papers were full of accounts of Wilson's great raid after the defeat of the forces at Selma and destroying the arsenals and manufactories there. After this Wilson moved eastward capturing Montgomery, West Point, Columbus and Macon, scattering the rebels in all directions, running the only remaining railroads, breaking up all the machine shops, destroying military stores and rendering the manufacture of material for future campaigns impossible.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald's Selma, Ala., dispatch says: Among the prisoners captured were 150 officers. Lieut. General Dick Taylor made his escape on a steamer. N. B. Forrest, Dan Adams, Roddy, Armstrong and [illegible] under cover of the darkness reached the swamp east of the city and eluded capture. The officers comprising the staff were taken. Forrest's ordnance officer, Captain Bond, reports that Forrest is wounded in two places in the arm. Gens. Croxton and McCook attacked Forrest in front and rear, but having traveled by widely different roads their attack was not simultaneous, else he must have been destroyed. They destroyed the Centreville bridge over the Cahawba river. In Croxton's movements towards Tuscaloosa render it utterly impossible for Forrest to carry out his plans. Cahawba was captured yesterday. About 700 of our prisoners confined there for a long time were released. They had been well treated.

Remains of President Lincoln at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., April 28.—All along the route from Buffalo to this city, which we reached this morning, the usual demonstrations of sorrow were witnessed. The remains were escorted by large military and civil processions to a beautifully constructed temple prepared to receive them, and soon thereafter the face of the honored dead was open to thousands of spectators who in a double order, entered and retired from the enclosure. The population of the city are seemingly impressed with the solemnity of the occasion.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 28.—The time of the funeral of the late President is changed from Saturday, May 6th to Thursday, May 4th.

More about the Assassins.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says:

The post mortem examination of Booth's body showed that the ball did not touch his brain, but striking the spinal column, produced paralysis. The opinion of the Surgeon is, that he must have died a horrible death. The brain having been unhurt he was conscious up to the moment of dissolution. Nearly all parties directly implicated, are in custody. Paine, the Seward assassin is a brother of one of the St. Albans raiders. There are six brothers, all reckless and daring. Two were with Walker in Nicaragua.

Edwin Booth arrived here to-day and asked for his brother's body. The request has not been granted.

Cruise of the Stonewall.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says:

Information has reached Washington that the rebel steam ram Olinda alias Stonewall arrived at Teneriffe, in the Canary Islands, on the 31st of March in three days from Lisbon. She was allowed to coal and provision, but was ordered to leave port in twenty four hours. She left on the 1st inst., steaming rapidly southward, but her destination was not made public.

The Navy Department, in anticipation of the appearance of the Stonewall in some of our borders, is making a proper distribution of suitable vessels along the Atlantic.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The Commercial's special says: The vaults of the Farmer's Bank at Richmond, have been opened and the contents found undisturbed.

A Cabinet meeting, to-day, considered the international questions likely to arise from the conspiracy, which is alleged to have extensive ramifications.

Booth's body has been placed where it will never be seen by mortal eyes again.

Secretary Seward and his son Frederick are doing well.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A New Madrid telegram says: The steamer Sultana exploded and sunk yesterday morning between there and Memphis. 2000 exchanged Union soldiers from Vicksburg were on board, with 1,000 civilians. It is said that not more than 700 were saved. No particulars.

In deference to the feeling of many Christians relative to Ascension Day, President Johnson has issued a proclamation appointing June 1st as a day of humiliation and prayer, instead of May 25th.

Foreign.

LIVERPOOL, April 16.—The Globe says: The fall of Richmond leaves the Confederates threatened on every side. There is a tremendous price to pay for the luxury of marching an army to Nashville and refusing until the eleventh hour to free and arm the negroes.

CALCUTTA, April 6.—There has been a serious disturbance on the Suez canal between the Egyptian and Norwegian laborers.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—No local news whatever. No arrivals.

The Court of Inquiry again in session in the O'Byrne matter with closed doors. The particular subject of their present investigations is believed to have been an article in the American Consul at Victoria, which the authorship of certain treasonable articles published in a Victoria paper over the signature of [illegible] is said to have been attributed to O'Byrne—the testimony now at hand has been expected for some time past and was the cause of several adjournments of the case.

Letter from Le Grande

LE GRANDE, April 21st 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:—We are just emerging out of the tailings of a very long and severe winter. The snow is all gone in the valley, but the mountain sides are still well covered. In portions of the valley ploughing and sowing has been going on for three or four weeks. A great amount of wheat was sown last fall which now looks well and if the flouring mill in contemplation [illegible] here proves a success, we will next fall be in a measure independent of the Walla Walla [illegible] for the main staple in the provision line. Owing to the length of the winter hay has been [illegible] and during some of the storms considerable stock has perished. An occasional case of destitution among the last season emigration has come to light, but it has been immediately relieved and little or no actual suffering has occurred.

The roads are of course unusually bad but are fast improving. To-day we met Mr. John A. Carr, contractor under Dr. S. B. Farnham, Superintendent of the New York and Idaho Mining Co., who has successfully surmounted all the obstacles of the Blue Mountain road and is now in camp near town with his large train consisting of [illegible] teams and one hundred and seventy six animals. The freight consists of a twenty stamp quartz mill weighing sixty tons and is bound for the South Boise district. At that mill of the capacity is to [illegible] in July. The company have been fortunate in selecting so able and indefatigable a superintendent as Dr. Farnham. The main difficulty (the Blue Mountains) having been surmounted, no further trouble is apprehended to prevent the safe and speedy delivery of the mill at South Boise.

Our town has its petty trials, tribulations and vexations of spirit, not the least of which is the irregularity and insufficiency of our mail arrangements. Our OREGONIANS we get regularly by Ish & Haly's passenger and express line, but our mail and express matter we get well, when it comes. We have a town of probably 400 inhabitants,—a county seat at that, and 1,500 actual residents of the valley, beside the hundreds of itinerants dependent upon our post office for their mail matter, and yet we get a mail only occasionally and then through the kindness of Messrs Ish & Haly. What are we to do? Can you suggest any means of relief for us? We have had our amusements the past winter. Beside many balls and any amount of sleighing parties we have had the Robinson Troupe who have given us several good entertainments in the way of theatricals and have been well supported. We are now dependent upon our hotel keepers for amusement which is furnished "free gratis" and consists of all sorts of worldly strife, and to make it more interesting the lawyers are deeply interested and play a prominent part. The effect of the "muss" is to reduce the price of "grub" and meals can be had by all bound [illegible] from four bits to one dollar in Le Grande.

A rush is always made for the office on the arrival of the OREGONIAN, and is usually of late followed up by the firing of some very large anvils and the spontaneous shouts of as patriotic throats as can be found in Oregon.

The mining season is very backward. Snow everywhere. Advices to-day from Eagle Creek report snow from two to four feet deep in that region and access to the mines except on foot impossible. Provisions are of course scarce and high. This state of things cannot last long and some are already working under the snow.

Yours, J.

Latest from Vancouver

Three hundred guns were this afternoon fired at each of the posts of Fort Vancouver and Vancouver Arsenal, 100 for the capture of Richmond, and 200 for the surrender of the Confederate Army.

The above notice came unduly to hand last evening. The envelope bore a post mark of "Vancouver April 12," another of Sacramento April 2[illegible]" and the word "mis sent" in large type, gives our readers as much explanation as it gives us. The 12th of April was the anniversary of the attack on Sumter, and our friends at Vancouver were to have notified us that it was properly celebrated by them. That's what's the matter. Only the message went a journeying by somebody's carelessness.

ERRATUM.—In our note about Vindex and the Dalles on Saturday, the word "not" was inadvertently omitted by the compositor. We intended to say that the people at the Dalles had not specifically denied the charges made, and we waited for them to do so.

The Minnesota Legislature has agreed to submit the question of permitting negroes to vote to the people at the next November election.

There was a great [illegible] and yet, in intellectual [illegible] above the brute [illegible] the distinctive characteristic of [illegible] and attainments [illegible] a high degree [illegible] the accomplishment [illegible] the position by reference [illegible] world contending that they were created for the [illegible] of such purposes [illegible] The great political [illegible] and Mr. Lincoln [illegible] the nation as a [illegible] the former gained the victory [illegible] the latter obtained the seat in the United States Senate [illegible] is that such was the result [illegible] Mr. Lincoln would [illegible] the United States. Truth [illegible] There has [illegible] as to the true [illegible] by the people [illegible] of our country [illegible] of human beings have [illegible] Africa and the [illegible] Western Hemisphere [illegible] the slave holder [illegible] John Russell, in his speech in Parliament of June 8th [illegible] that 130,000 were yearly [illegible] from Africa, while this year the number has [illegible] 30,000 [illegible] the hope of [illegible] At the beginning of President [illegible] there were 4,000,000 [illegible] This was [illegible] have been [illegible] the United [illegible] latter character [illegible] consistent [illegible] amount, the other subversive [illegible] an aristocracy and to establish [illegible] at, stimulated and developed by years of [illegible] slavery which could [illegible] of slaves at the rate of 30,000 per annum [illegible] defiance of the laws of christendom and the [illegible] could commit the crime of treason [illegible] and that slavery tends to [illegible] the speaker would not stop to discuss [illegible] of Abraham Lincoln marks an important [illegible] in the United States and in the world's history. His [illegible] John C. Breckenridge, was the representative [illegible] the dogma that slavery was a divine institution [illegible] all over the United States, and [illegible] wherever our flag floats. Finally [illegible] he left the United States [illegible] the delusive hope of establishing a government [illegible] slavery as its chief corner stone. As representative [illegible] Mr. Lincoln was purely American. And while [illegible] is entitled to the honor of giving him birth [illegible] claim him as the representative of the fundamental truth that all men are created equal in rights, that [illegible] from no condition rise [illegible] that in America [illegible] of birth or poverty of position shall crush [illegible] aspirations of any. At the time of his election [illegible] it was not expected [illegible] even by the President that [illegible] would commit [illegible] This much did he say [illegible] "thus far shalt thou go and no farther." Duty [illegible] the Union, on the 1st day of January, 1863, in the [illegible] of his duty, acting under the solemnity of his [illegible] the invocation of divine wisdom, clothed with the [illegible] as Chief he proclaimed freedom to the [illegible] you rather that slavery were dead [illegible] rather that slavery were living and [illegible] This result, sooner or later was [illegible] and looked for by the founders of our [illegible] Mr. Jefferson in speaking upon the [illegible] "I tremble for my country, when I consider [illegible] is just." Slavery is doomed

"From age to age descend the lay,
To millions yet to be,
Till far its echoes roll away
Into eternity."

[illegible] to the fact that Mr. Buchanan was disposed to [illegible] that the Treasury was empty, the [illegible] and the arms in the hands of rebels that [illegible] stand up [illegible] so much labor [illegible] that [illegible] be surprised that the rebellion has not [illegible] Speaking of the work of the assassin [illegible] well directed [illegible] took off the good Abraham Lincoln, that good man, brave heart, best friend [illegible] as well as to the loyal [illegible] head and [illegible] farewell. We would that he might have [illegible] his three-score and ten years [illegible] a Nation's [illegible] his deliverer of our country in its greatest [illegible] and if he must we would that it might have [illegible] a quiet and peaceful death in the enjoyment [illegible] surrounded by his family and friends. We [illegible] he might have been spared to give us a Farewell [illegible] or even a few last words, that we might [illegible] them to our children. How richly do we [illegible] and dearly do we love the Farewell Address of [illegible] of his Country! None the less so should we [illegible] from its Preserver.

[illegible] the speaker spoke hopefully of the country [illegible] that the heavy cloud of war would soon be [illegible] the Nation, and that peace with harmony and [illegible] would again, at no distant day gladden the [illegible] people. There may we say to the oppressed [illegible] Here has the tree of Liberty been [illegible] It has been watered by the last blood of patriots [illegible] by that of the Preserver of his Country — [illegible] aristocracy and love freedom come and [illegible] under its broad branches — And a name and a [illegible] we transfer to our children of which [illegible] be proud.

[illegible] late hymn was then sung by the Choir [illegible] pronounced by Rev. P. F. Hyland and [illegible] dispersed, the citizens wending their [illegible] and the invited guests [illegible] moving off to dinner in different divisions.

[illegible] — At the close of a late term [illegible] Court, in this city, for Multnomah county, [illegible] of the incorporation of all the road [illegible] in Portland into one district to be [illegible] Road District No. 4, with Mr. J. S. White as [illegible] The amount of money to be expended upon [illegible] was also voted, and now we see Mr. [illegible] notifying those indebted and collecting [illegible] the work. It is hoped that some benefit may [illegible] to the roads in [illegible] under the new arrangement [illegible] and practical work. The roads of [illegible] a question of the greatest importance, [illegible] attended to, and unless a corporation [illegible] go on and construct them for us [illegible] exorbitant rates of toll, our farm [illegible] is not permitted to have any intercourse [illegible] and business community. Our [illegible] literally impenetrable by impassible [illegible] and this city has heretofore been obliged entirely [illegible] upon the steamboat trade for her support [illegible] portion of the agricultural wealth which [illegible] There is no investment on the Pacific [illegible] that offers a greater remuneration than the invest[illegible] in roads, and the settlements and neighborhoods [illegible] though sparse as they are can obtain the [illegible] such an outlay by working their roads and [illegible] the encouragement of the tax from others to [illegible] The making of good roads is one of the best [illegible] can be put forth for the building up of commu[illegible] with good roads there is no excuse for hard times [illegible] that the enterprising proprietor [illegible] has at length accomplished his object for [illegible] good wagon road from Portland to Tualatin [illegible] "town sight" and that soon after the [illegible] (expected), parties may visit Springville [illegible] from this city, over a superb road, and [illegible] desire to do so, proceed to Hillsboro on the [illegible] equally as good with less travel than going [illegible] route. We are glad to hear [illegible] and we hope to see [illegible] adopted for many [illegible] There is [illegible]

[illegible] — Our advertising columns show the [illegible] of an old and well known city firm, made we [illegible] in consequence of the intended departure from [illegible] for a time, of the Senior member [illegible] who, on account of ill health of his family [illegible] traveling for a year or so previous to his return [illegible] years he has made [illegible] and we have reason to believe that he has stood [illegible] with the prosperity of Portland. [illegible] the city purse strings as Treasurer, always [illegible] a friend to its best interests, ever furnishing [illegible] with the primest Havana's to puff away [illegible] with or the best of Natural Leaf's [illegible] of the bitter end of disappointment. [illegible] a "puff" to change the [illegible] Success go with him.

[illegible] TO PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S MEMORY. — It is suggested whether it would not be a satisfaction as well as [illegible] proper respect to the memory of our late Chief [illegible] President Lincoln [illegible] be built [illegible] in or near this city [illegible] A movement is on foot [illegible] worthy [illegible] and we should be pleased to see our citizens [illegible] Who will take the initiative [illegible] meeting and giving the subject proper [illegible] the appointment of a head? We are decidedly [illegible] the idea.

Letter from Oregon City

OREGON CITY, April 12, 1865.

[illegible] At a meeting of the citizens of Oregon City held at the Court House [illegible] the reception of the news of the surrender of [illegible] and his army, to [illegible] for a proper celebration [illegible] A. L. Lovejoy was [illegible] Chairman and Joseph D. Lucy Secretary.

[illegible] committee consisting of Dr. [illegible] Barclay, Wm. [illegible] Chairman [illegible] appointed to prepare a program [illegible] and make [illegible]

Adjourned [illegible] [illegible] A. L. LOVEJOY, Chairman. Jos. D. Lucy, Secretary.

In pursuance of this arrangement [illegible] was given for a general illumination for the glorious prospects of peace which victory assures us, and evening was ushered in with the clash of bells [illegible] and an illumination of all the [illegible]

[illegible] pleasure in announcing [illegible] Mr. [illegible] a [illegible] the best [illegible] the [illegible] men of the Democratic persuasion [illegible] literally the subscription lists and generally [illegible] their houses and places [illegible] last evening. In addition to this a Democratic cannon which has [illegible] away for years (the planks in the platform of modern Democracy being entirely too rotten to bear the weight of artillery) was voluntarily offered to fire a National salute.

Those in my mind are omens of good. [illegible] [illegible] left to decide the [illegible] [illegible] by watching the course [illegible] The great problem of the success of our experiment as a Republican Nation depends in a large measure on the fact [illegible] to [illegible] So far we have been successful. Men of all creeds and of every country under heaven have [illegible] by the vitality of our Republicanism, that distinctions of national [illegible] and of language have been merged in a common nationality and a common language.

The supremacy of law, of Order, of good government will be asserted, but after that we are bound [illegible] as Patriots to do what we may for the healing of our country from its [illegible] wounds.

But I did not start to write an essay, and will [illegible] by saying that the exercises of to-day closed with patriotic speaking and a salute from Co. B Oregon Infantry [illegible] for the Dalles.

Everything went off glorious.

Yours truly, CLACKAMAS.

THE NEW TAX BILL. — The following are some of the most [illegible] features of the new tax bill which passed in Congress at the close of last week. [illegible]

The tax on cigars, originally [illegible], was finally fixed at [illegible] per thousand, without regard to quality or price. [illegible]

On and after July, 1866, there is to be levied and collected a tax of ten per cent. on all State bank circulation, and from the first of next May savings banks are to be taxed at the rate of one per cent on their deposits. [illegible]

[illegible] is levied on every cigarette. In the long schedule of manufactures the same [illegible].

A MARRYING MAN. — A clergyman in this vicinity has related to us the following experience in professional life. On the first day in December, on a certain year, he attended the funeral of a married lady; on the 4th day of the next July he married the bereaved husband to a second wife, who died quite suddenly in about two weeks, and he attended the funeral services on the 22d or 23d of July, and on the 3d day of the following December he married the man to his third wife. Thus in the space of one year and four days the man had three wives, buried two of them and had two weddings. If any of our clerical readers can give an experience that beats that, we should like to hear from them. — Lowell Courier.

One of the new inventions in the art of photography is that of photographing on porcelain. The effect is quite pleasing, the picture being quite clear and distinct like fine line engraving, and especially beautiful when light can pass through the porcelain, which renders the shading soft and delicate, and brings out many effects which cannot be produced in an ordinary picture.

LETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIMED in the Post Office at Portland, State of Oregon, May 1st, 1865.

To obtain any of these, the applicant must call for advertised letters, give the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

If not called for within one month, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners, may be secured by observing the following rules:

1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as to the post office and State.

2. Head letters with the writer's post office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be sent accordingly.

3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word "Transient."

4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

N. B. — A request for the return of a letter to the writer if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed with the writer's name, post-office, and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer. — Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

[illegible], March 26, 1865.

Messrs. Tilton & McFarland, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by [illegible], I was induced to purchase of [illegible] one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safe."

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, [illegible] our own with the rest. We had all our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called safe was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make), and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that in the large amount of [illegible] [illegible] & H.'s cellar [illegible] lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the [illegible] business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servants,

(Signed) GEO. L. CHESBIRO & CO.

TILTON & McFARLAND'S SAFE,

The Only Protection

Against Fire and Burglars.

For the last Fifteen Years

This Safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific Coast, and we can point with satisfaction to the record that out of one of our Safes by means of Burglars. Their fire and burglar proof qualities are so well known that this need no further recommendation.

A good assortment of Tilton & McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof Safes to be had at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS many advantages over all other Wheels, both Turbines and Overshot.

It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel, and has always proved itself victorious.

This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the States and HAS NEVER MADE A FAILURE.

It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT. OF POWER from the same quantity of water. We have introduced five on this coast. They are not all in operation yet, but will be in a few days. The following testimonial is from an old and experienced Mill-wright, well known in this State:

WESTPORT, CLATSOP CO., OREGON, Nov. 19th, 1864.

MESSRS. LEFFEL & MYERS — Dear Sirs: We have plenty of water now, and your DOUBLE TURBINE is in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is fully equal, if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot uses, we can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior to the Overshot, but yours is the first I have found. Hence we do not hesitate to recommend the American Double Turbine as the most efficient economizer of water in our knowledge.

JOHN WEST & CO.

We desire all who want Wheels to visit the following named places and have ocular demonstration of the above facts:

John West & Co., West Port, Clatsop County, Oregon;
Lewis Love, Vancouver, W. T.;
L. P. Landing, Idaho City, I. T.;
Hampton Kelly, three miles East of Portland;
Sevan & Co., Oregon City. Address

LEFFEL & MYERS, Portland, Oregon, Care Richards & McCraken.

Dec. 2, 1864.

N. B. — A new supply of Wheels will be brought out next May or June. Orders will be filed and supplied according to date of order. de5dlawtf

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS, and PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
